Community Housing Transition Collaboration Map 02.25.21

Pre-move →	Assessment	Planning	Transition
Support Coordinator	Start* Complete person-centered assessment. Assist individual with selecting CHG provider.	Develop Individual Support Plan The housing assessment & referral, and the housing action plan	monitor, and link to
Community Housing Guide (CHG)		Complete Part V: Plan for Supports & Get Service Authorization	Help apply for and use rent subsidy; assist with housing search and applications, locating funding, coordinating move, and education
PRP /IRP Providers*		IRP: Complete Part V Plan for Supports & Get Service Authorization	Stop IRP: Provide skill-building and support to assist with routine needs, packing, and home set-up
Regional Housing Coordinator (RHC)	Provide all roles technical assistance with screening/assessment, interp	eting results, and strategies to address housing barriers in the action plan.	vide all roles technical istance with using search Provide all roles technical assistance to resolve barriers

Post-move → Initial Occupancy (3-6 months)			Ongoing Occupancy (beyond 6 months)
СНС	IRP	RHC	СНС	SC	IRP	RHC
Support with understanding tenant responsibilities, household management, and resolving disputes	Teach skills needed for increased independence; community connecting, and health & safety	Remain available to assist with understanding responsibilities, requesting accommodations, and identifying strategies to resolve disputes	Assist with housing re- certification upon SC request	Resolve disputes & coordinate recertification activities	Continue supports for independence and health & safety.	Continue availability for technical assistance

* A person may start with a "pre-independent housing residential provider" (PRP) such as a provider of group home, sponsored residential or supported living services and transition to an "independent housing residential provider" (IRP) such as a provider of inhome, independent living or personal assistance services provider. These may be the same provider agency delivering different services or they could be different provider agencies.